

Kirk Kaminsky

President, U.S. Pharmaceutical

Kirk Kaminsky is President of U.S. Pharmaceutical for McKesson Corporation. As a member of the Executive Operating Team, Kirk is responsible for providing leadership and strategic direction for McKesson's best-in-class wholesale drug distribution and value-added technology solutions for retail pharmacies, health systems, payers and community providers in the U.S. Kirk also leads the development of the company's oncology ecosystem, a strategic growth pillar, through The US Oncology Network, Sarah Cannon Research Institute, Ontada and Biologics by McKesson specialty pharmacy.

Kirk joined McKesson in 2003 and has served in a variety of leadership roles at the company. Most recently, Kirk headed the Specialty Provider Organization, a division of U.S. Pharmaceutical. In addition, he served as President of The US Oncology Network, led the U.S. Pharmaceutical packaging business and was a member of the company's Corporate Strategy and Business Development function. Prior to joining McKesson, Kirk worked in investment banking as a financial analyst, concentrating on corporate finance for healthcare and consumer retail.

Kirk is the Vice Chair of the Healthcare Distribution Alliance (HDA) Executive Committee and Board of Directors.

Kirk holds a Bachelor of Arts in Economics for Business from Occidental College and a Master of Business Administration from The Wharton School.

McKesson Corporation is a diversified healthcare services leader dedicated to advancing health outcomes for patients everywhere. Our teams partner with biopharma companies, care providers, pharmacies, manufacturers, governments, and others to deliver insights, products and services to help make quality care more accessible and affordable. Learn more about how McKesson is impacting virtually every aspect of healthcare at McKesson.com and read Our Stories.